ScreenPeace Film Festival 2017
Friday, February 3 to Sunday, February 5
Join us for the annual ScreenPeace Film Festival, presenting six critically acclaimed films that deal with a wide range of human rights issues from around the globe. All films are FREE, but ticketed. Call the DeBartolo Performing Arts Center Ticket Office at 574-631-2800 to reserve tickets, order online, or reserve your seat at the door.

Obi Anyadike to Receive Kroc Institute 2017 Distinguished Alumni Award
Obi Anyadike, M.A. ’97, editor-at-large and Africa editor of IRIN, will receive the 2017 Distinguished Alumni Award from the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies. This award honors Notre Dame graduates in peace studies whose careers and lives exemplify the ideals of international peacebuilding. Anyadike will accept the award and deliver a lecture entitled “Fake News and ‘Post-Truth’: Challenges to Global Journalism” at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, February 14, in the Hesburgh Center Auditorium.

Political Islam and America’s Long War
Thursday, February 2
12:30 p.m., C103 Hesburgh Center for International Studies
Visiting Research Fellow Scott Hibbard will examine America’s ‘long war’ with Islamic ideology and militant groups.

More »
them online at performingarts.nd.edu, or pick them up at the box office.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3
Fire at Sea/Hollow Land 6:30 p.m.
Ixcanul 9:30 p.m.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4
Hisséin Habré, A Chadian Tragedy 6:30 p.m.
Do Not Resist 9:30 p.m.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 5
Time to Choose 3 p.m.

---

The Colombian Peace Process and the Catholic Church

Tuesday, February 28
4 p.m., Hesburgh Center for International Studies Auditorium

An expert in Catholic Social Teaching, Msgr. Héctor Fabio Henao explores how the Catholic Church played a central role in the Colombian peace process. More »

---

2017 Notre Dame Student Peace Conference

Friday, March 31 to Saturday, April 1
Hesburgh Center for International Studies

This year’s conference is called “Pathways to Peace” and aims to demonstrate that through interactive dialogue, sustainable peace can be achieved by altering the underlying structures that produce conflict. More »

---

Teaching Peace in the 21st Century: 9th Annual Summer Institute for Faculty

Monday, June 19 to Friday, June 23
Hesburgh Center for International Studies

The Summer Institute is a week-long program that brings together teams of academics who want to launch peace studies programs at their colleges or universities; strengthen or develop a new dimension to peace studies programs; or move established peace studies programs to the next level of design and rigor. More »
David Cortright was featured prominently in The Nation article “The Forgotten Power of the Vietnam Peace Movement.”

Robert Johansen and Ashley Greene (Ph.D. History & Peace Studies, 2016) will speak at the World Peace Conference 2017 in Ann Arbor. They were mentioned in the PR Newswire article “Experts on peace and conflict resolution to address World Peace Conference 2017 in Ann Arbor.”

The Kroc Institute and Peace Accords Matrix were mentioned by Colombian President Juan Manuel Santos in the El Espectador article “Santos: ‘They tried to derail the peace process using the Army.’” (In Spanish)

The Kroc Institute conducts research on strategies for sustainable peace and supports undergraduate, master's, and Ph.D. students in peace studies.