Catholics Commemorate 75 Years after Hiroshima and Nagasaki

Monday, August 3

9:00 a.m., Virtual Event

Seventy-five years ago, on August 6 and 9, 1945, two atomic weapons were detonated over the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, killing upwards of 80,000 people in Hiroshima and 35,000 people in Nagasaki.

This year, prominent Catholics in the United States and Japan are working together in solidarity and friendship to promote a world free of nuclear weapons. Join Archbishop Mitsuaki Takami and Bishop David Malloy as they offer short reflections on the meaning of the bombings today.
