

KROC INSTITUTE

FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE STUDIES

March 2022

News

New program launches to amplify the voices of Afghan peace and development scholars and practitioners

In August 2021, as the Taliban was taking over control of Kabul, Afghanistan, faculty at the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies began having conversations in the halls about how to respond given the Institute's history of supporting Afghan peace and development efforts. Faculty members continued conversations with colleagues at the Pulte Institute for Global Development, a fellow Institute within Notre Dame's Keough School of Global Affairs, and from these conversations, the Afghan Peace and Development Research Program (APDRP) was born.

Read more »

An Interview with the 2022 Peace

Conference Planning Committee

The Notre Dame Student Peace Conference is an annual gathering organized by students and for students. Each year, the event draws hundreds of students from across North America and around the world. Here two representatives from the conference planning team reflect on their hopes for the conference, the importance of peace studies, what they are learning through the conference planning process, and the unique perspective students can bring to the concept of justice.

Read more »

Kroc Institute welcomes visiting researchers during spring semester

The Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies is pleased to announce that four scholars began their terms as visiting research fellows at the start of the spring 2022 semester.

Read more »

Upcoming Events

Book Talk for 'Wicked Problems: The Ethics of Action for Peace, Rights, and Justice'

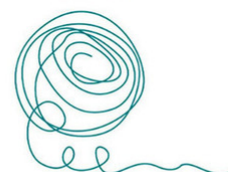

Tuesday, April 5, 2022

6:30 p.m. EDT, Zoom Webinar

While a generation of changemakers and peacebuilders have set out to “Be the Change!” a thousand cautionary tales from the frontlines of social, economic, climate, and racial justice

WICKED PROBLEMS

The Ethics of Action for Peace, Rights, and Justice

work suggest that deep ethical dilemmas don't always have easily actionable answers. Join us for the book launch of Wicked Problems: The Ethics of Action for Peace, Rights, and Justice (Oxford University Press, 2022), where a panel of the books' contributors discuss the trade-offs, dilemmas, and compromises they encounter in their daily work as conflict resolution practitioners, peacebuilders, advocates, organizers, and activists.

Read more »

Notre Dame Student Peace Conference

Friday, April 8 – Saturday, April 9, 2022
All Day, Hybrid and In-person

The Notre Dame Student Peace Conference is an annual event organized by students for students. The conference is free and open to students from any college or university who want to engage in dialogue on important issues related to peacebuilding, social justice, and conflict transformation.

Read more »

Video Highlight

How does civil resistance work and what can it achieve? A March 22 panel discussion focused on how civilians are using strategic civil resistance to diminish the power and impact of the Russian military. Watch the full conversation below.

Civil Resistance in Ukraine and the Region

Tuesday, March 22, 2022
12:00 p.m. EDT
Zoom Webinar

This panel will share how civilians are using strategic civil resistance to diminish the power and impact of the Russian military.

Panelists include leading experts in civil resistance, some joining us from the frontlines in Kyiv.

Register to attend at go.nd.edu/UkraineCivilResistance

Media Highlights

Mary Ellen O'Connell, Robert and Marion Short Professor of Law and Research Professor of International Dispute Resolution, was quoted in the Reuters video "Putin acting 'irrationally,' says analyst, but settlement possible."

Gerard Powers, Director of Catholic Peacebuilding Studies, was quoted in the Catholic News Service article "Munitions Russia is using, justifications for war come under scrutiny."

Ernesto Verdeja, Associate Professor of Political Science and Peace Studies, was quoted extensively in the Business Insider article "Experts say there's clear cut evidence of war crimes in Ukraine, but building a case against Putin will take years and it's unlikely he'll ever face justice."

Kristina Hook (Ph.D. '20) and Drew Marcantonio (Ph.D. '21) wrote The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists article "Grappling with environmental risks in the fog of war."

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME

KEOUGH SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS

kroc.nd.edu

Share this email:

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove®

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

View this email online.

1110 Jenkins Nanovic Halls
Notre Dame , IN 46615 | US

This email was sent to kflahert@nd.edu.